

ALLISON N. MADRID

EDUCATION

A.T. Still University Doctor of Physical Therapy Capstone Project: "LVST-BIG and Fall Risk in Patient's with Parkinson's Disease"	2019
Thomas Jefferson University Master of Science in Physical Therapy Bachelor of Science in Physical Therapy Thesis: "Patellofemoral Pain: Optimal Treadmill Angle for Vastus Medialis Oblique Activation While Retrograde Walking"	1997
Elizabethtown College Bachelor of Science in Biology, Allied Health cum laude	1995

ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

Adjunct Clinical Professor University of Southern California Division of Biokinesiology and Physical Therapy at the Herman Ostrow School of Dentistry	2021 - present
Instructor of BLS Cardio-Pulmonary Resuscitation Conducted BLS level CPR classes for the rehabilitation department.	2004-2007
APTA Certified Clinical Instructor	2002-Current

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

LAC-USC Medical Center Physical Therapist II Participates in clinical training programs for students, graduate physical therapists, and physical therapy assistants. Provides in-service training to physical therapy staff, nurses, and other allied health professionals. Participates in multidisciplinary quality improvement project for early mobility in the medical intensive care unit. Participates in daily multidisciplinary rounds in the Neuroscience ICU, with the Neurology service, and with the Orthopedic service. Performs physical therapy evaluation, assessment, and treatment in an acute care setting.	December 2007 – present
Torrance Memorial Medical Center Staff Physical Therapist Conducted educational classes to patients preparing for total joint replacements. Participated in clinical education of physical therapy students. Provided interventions, treatments, and services for an acute medical center. Assisted in assigning of staff caseloads. Closely supervised physical therapy assistant and aides.	June 2006 – December 2007
Thomas Jefferson University Hospital Advanced Clinician I Assisted in supervising clinical training of students and new staff (both physical and occupational therapy). Planned, managed, and coordinated unit therapy programs with physicians and allied health personnel. Closely supervised therapy aides and physical therapy assistants. Provided interventions, treatments, and services for an acute medical and rehabilitation setting.	November 2003 – June 2006
LAC Harbor UCLA Medical Center Physical Therapist I Assisted in development and institution of educational classes for patients with chronic low back pain. Participated in clinical education of physical therapy students. Treated various diagnoses and disabilities in an acute care and outpatient setting with an emphasis on neurological and orthopedic diagnoses. Supervised physical therapy assistant.	November 1998 – August 2003
Northridge Hospital Medical Center Staff Physical Therapist	September 1997 – October 1998

Treated a variety of patients in an outpatient setting with an emphasis on work related and orthopedic injuries. Strong emphasis on Mackenzie, McConnell taping, and manual techniques of treatment. Supervised therapy aides.

RELATED EXPERIENCE

LAC-USC Medical Center

Co-Lead of Rehab Department Stroke Committee

Serving as co-leader of the rehab department stroke committee. Working closely with physical therapy, occupational therapy, and speech therapy on a multidisciplinary committee.

May 2021 – Current

LAC-USC Medical Center

Quality Academy Program

Six-month program designed to help participants develop and implement quality improvement projects within their departments.

2018

MEMBERSHIPS

American Physical Therapy Association, Acute Care section member

California Physical Therapy Association