DIVERSITY STORY SLAM

OPEN MIC

Earlier this month, the Division held its third annual Diversity Story Slam, where community members tell personal stories of enlightenment surrounding issues of diversity, equity and inclusion or share lived experiences in regards to their identities. If you missed it, you can read and listen to them by following the link.

ONE STEP AT A TIME

Helmed by Assistant Professor Kristan Leech, the new Gait Rehabilitation and Motor Learning Lab helps patients with neurologic injury get back on track.

MORE THAN MEETS THE EYE

Long before Associate Professor Jason Kutch became a researcher, the one-time operatic singer had dreams of singing at the Metropolitan Opera.
